COMPARATIVE LITERATURE PANEL

THE TRANSREGIONAL POLITICS OF LITERARY LANGUAGE: COMPARATIVE WORK ACROSS AFRICAN AND ASIAN CONTEXTS

February 21
Thursday | 2019 | 5-6:30 p.m.
S250, 2nd Floor, CGIS South
1730 Cambridge St., Cambridge

"AT THE HINGE OF AFRICA AND ASIA: TRANSREGIONAL REINVENTIONS OF WORLD AND COMPARATIVE LITERATURE"

SHADEN TAGELDIN
Associate Professor of Cultural Studies and Comparative Literature, University of Minnesota

"SUAT DERVIS, THE LANGUAGE OF TURKISH COMMUNISM, AND THE SOCIALIST REALIST NOVEL"

NERGIS ERTÜRK
Associate Professor of Comparative Literature, Pennsylvania State University

"LONGUE DURÉE AND LOCAL INNOVATIONS IN WEST AFRICAN AJAMI TRADITIONS"

FALLOU NGOM
Professor of Anthropology; Director, African Studies Center, Boston University

"MALAY AS A LITERARY/Writing LANGUAGE IN THE INDIAN OCEAN"

HENK MAIER
Professor Emeritus, University of California, Riverside

Chair:
ANNETTE LIENAU
Assistant Professor of Comparative Literature, Harvard University

Co-sponsored by:
the Harvard University Asia Center, the Center for Middle Eastern Studies, and the Department of Comparative Literature, Harvard University